6 X 1 HOUR
BASED ON A TRUE STORY

SAMBER

The acclaimed new series by Oscar-winning director Jean-Xavier de Lestrade.

A story of decades of collective blindness.

Late 80's in Northern France, women are being sexually assaulted along the same road by the Samber river – with attacks taking place early mornings and in a similar style. The police fail to get to grips with the extent of these assaults or make a connection between the cases. The justice system is overwhelmed by the accumulating cases. It will take 30 years to catch a man, who never stopped attacking women and is responsible for at least 54 cases of rape or sexual assault. Samber is a thriller that recounts the progression of the investigation, and its repercussions from the 80's through to 2018 and the beginning of the #metoo era.

Breaking record figures in prime time on France 2 and on france.tv, Samber is the most watched series in France Televisions' platform history.

VIGILANTES

The first 72 hours are all that counts.

A former lawbreaker, Castaneda is also a loving father with a somewhat headstrong personality, who hasn't always walked on the right side of life. But these days he has only one goal: to give his daughter the very best he can. To achieve that, he takes odd jobs and does everything in his power to conform to society's norms. But things take a turn when his daughter goes missing and he is prepared to do whatever it takes to find her. When someone disappears, the first few hours are critical, but the police stations are understaffed... So, Castaneda decides to take matters into his own hands, and investigate himself with the help of other individuals, normal everyday people without any diplomas, or privileged backgrounds, who are just willing to scour the countryside to track down the kidnapper.

Anti-establishment, resourceful, and very much in touch with the people, could Castaneda and his team be in a much better position than the police to find her?

Adolescence is a tragedy. Yet, thinking about it, it's also a comedy. So, to tell the story of adolescence, why not rely on the greatest playwright of all time?

In this series, Thomas, our Othello, is no longer the brave leader of the Venetian army, but the unflappable leader of a Parkour crew. By his side, we find the good-humoured Michele and the quick-witted Gaia. They all get along well, until they meet Beatrice Virgili, the most beautiful girl in school, who both Thomas and Gaia end up falling for. When an intense romance develops between Beatrice and Thomas, Gaia, struck with envy towards her friend, hatches a meticulous plan to separate the two lovers. Gaia's underhanded persuasion tactics take effect and Thomas' insecurities erupt into a blind jealousy that ends up destroying his love for Beatrice and his friendship with Michele. In a season finale where no one comes out on top, the real tragedy for the protagonists is their awareness of adulthood and their sense of disenchantment whilst also having the opportunity to investigate their own frailties, work through their mistakes or, simply grow up!

Five years after the Bataclan terrorist attack and a few days after the end of the first lockdown, psychoanalyst Philippe Dayan (Frédéric Pierrot) gets four new patients: Ines (Eye Haïdara), a lonesome attorney in her early forties, Robin (Aliocha Delmotte), an overweight teen who gets bullied at school, Lydia (Suzanne Lindon), a student who feels the need to share her dark medical secret, and Alain (Jacques Weber), a business owner who's caught up in a media firestorm. Divorced and sued by the family members of a former patient, Dr. Dayan turns to Claire (Charlotte Gainsbourg), a renowned analyst and essayist who, he hopes, may be able to help him through his legal turmoil.

The biggest success in history for a drama on ARTE with over 40M views in one month.

Season 1 received an avalanche of astounding praise in media worldwide.

Season 2's world premiere at Series Mania 2022.

FEDERATION studios

Run by founder Pascal Breton and co-led by Lionel Uzan and Marco Chimenz, Federation heralds a new breed of independent European studios, focusing on the creation, production, financing and distribution of high-quality original productions for the global marketplace.

Federation works with the best worldwide talents and partners on the scene today to create a strong distribution portfolio as well as an array of premium international productions.

Only ten years after its creation, the production and distribution studio has offices in Paris, Los Angeles, Rome, Madrid, London, Berlin, Cologne, Brussels and Tel Aviv.

Federation is active in drama, kids & family, documentary and cinema. The group works with all platforms and major actors in the market and is behind several major international successes to date.

One of the biggest players in international distribution

The strong distribution arm of the company has been building up a rich lineup, mixing in-house and third-party premium content.

Federation has established long-term distribution agreements with multi-award and prominent independent producers, such as What's Up Films, Unité, Einar Films Drama, Elephant, Orange Studio, Eyeworks (Warner Bros), Tetra Media, Slim Film + Television, Paypermoon Italia, Millstreet, Warner Belgium, Warner Sweden and many more... It has strong relationships both with historical and new local linear broadcasters and worldwide streamers.

Federation co-finances projects in the early stages and accompanies partners in their specific production needs throughout the entire creative process.

The sales team at Federation is jointly led by Monica Levy (former Zodiak Media) and Guillaume Pommier (former Lagardère / Mediawan), two leading figures in the field of international distribution.

What they say about our programs

BARDOT

Like Bardot, the series is a sexy breed with a prestige pedigree.
Variety

A perfect art of casting... The sensual and touching beauty of Julia de Nunez, her slow phrasing and her hoarse voice turn Bardot into a shock of cinema, sorry, of television.
Telerama

ONE OF US

A great cocktail of authenticity, audacity and joy.
Le Figaro

A series that will change the way people look at disability.
20 Minutes

SAMBER

Jean-Xavier de Lestrade, the Oscar-winning filmmaker behind docuseries The Staircase, has once again struck a chord with Samber.
Variety

A disturbing yet essential series that shines a spotlight on the very slow response by society and key institutions when it comes to sexual crimes.
Les Echos

AROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS

It's all here—exotic locales, witty, charming characters and absorbing episode arcs.
The New York Post

An ode to travel... A big, lively and timely adaptation.
The Guardian

The series stands as a perfect example of television that can bring the whole family together.
