POLICE DRAMA
THE SHIFT

A delicate portrayal of men and women in the police force as their beliefs are shaken by a case gone wrong.

When a routine intervention spirals out of control, a police officer is critically wounded by a violent husband he was apprehending.

As Internal Affairs launches an investigation, his colleagues must answer for every decision they made that night.

The interrogations take their toll, forcing the officers to question not only their actions on the job, but who they are behind the badge.

ALTER EGO

Case after case, this unlikely cop/lawyer duo will clash, argue, but also grow fond of one another. Could it be that they both found their alter ego?

Joseph Batista, a man of few words yet deeply human police officer, returns to Marseille after thirty years in Paris. He has a very good reason to come back: he has just learned that he has a daughter, Anaïs, as well as a grandson he has never met.

Anaïs, now an adult, works as an investigating judge, and is determined to make him pay for his absence.

Meanwhile, Samy Kaddourian is a brilliant yet chaotic lawyer juggling three kids on his own. He also defends the very suspects Castella is determined to put behind bars.

Joseph and Samy form an unlikely duo. Yet, they keep running into each other on criminal cases, on opposite sides, but both fighting for justice.

ALL SHAPES OF US

Led by a cast of endearing teenagers and their teachers, the series tackles the universal subject of eating disorders without judgement, blending emotion and humor.

Honorine, Lola, Madi, Yohan, Karima and Nico are six teenagers starting the new school year at The Hive, a school unlike any other specialized in eating disorders. At The Hive, they study and heal. Despite very different social backgrounds and life paths, our heroes all have one thing in common: a complicated relationship with their weight.

Some need to lose it, others urgently need to gain it back, but all of them need to build—or rebuild—self-confidence and find a way through. Quickly. Will the friendship they form be strong enough to help them accept their reflection in the mirror and maybe even learn to love it?

CRIME THRILLER
DUSTFALL

A gripping character-led crime drama that follows a detective whose deep sense of justice is challenged by a world where victims are doubted, predators hide in plain sight, and the legal system too often falls short.

Burnt-out detective Antigone “Tig” Pollard returns to her coastal hometown seeking peace but is soon drawn into a harrowing case when 18-year-old Maeve is found drugged and raped in a cane field. As Tig investigates, the town fractures: women demand justice, men feel targeted, and Tig’s own traumatic past resurfaces.

When two suspects die from the same drug used on Maeve, Tig uncovers a disturbing pattern and a vigilante killer targeting the rapists. Torn between the failures of the justice system and a personal thirst for truth, Tig must decide how far she’s willing to go to stop the cycle of violence.

I, JACK WRIGHT

Revenge is a dish best served dead cold.

Jack Wright is a powerful and successful businessman, whose shock suicide leaves his family in disarray. When the provisions of Jack's final will and testament are made known, his third wife, Sally, and two sons, Gray and John, are appalled to discover they have been largely cut out of Jack's enormous fortune. As DCI Morgan and DC Jones delve further into the case, they realize Jack's cause of death was in fact murder. Their sights soon turn to the Wright family, where the mother of all feuds is beginning. As each family member becomes more reckless and desperate in their bid to own a piece of Jack's legacy, dark secrets and resentments are revealed with explosive consequences.

SOMEONE SHOULD BAN SUNDAY AFTERNOONS

A love letter to French cinema, Paris, and the universal feeling of youth wistfulness.

Louise dreams of becoming a filmmaker. After winning a UNESCO grant, she leaves Limoges for Paris to be mentored by a legendary American writer-director.

But reality quickly sets in: Paris is tougher than she imagined, her childhood friendships are fading, she can't find an apartment and is stuck in a youth hostel—and the mentor she came for is nowhere in sight.

Everything changes the day she meets Charlie while working on her screenplay. She offers her a room in the apartment she shares with Nelson, her best (and almost only) friend. There's just one catch: Louise has to pass their brutally honest roommate interview first.

Their unlikely trio marks the beginning of a chaotic and heartfelt cohabitation as they navigate that awkward, uncertain passage from youth into adulthood.

THOSE WHO LIVED

Bound by terror. Tied for life.

Marie, Arnaud, Caroline, Sébastien, Grégory, Stéphane, and David have a unique friendship that formed on the night they were all taken hostage at the Bataclan concert hall, in Paris, on November the 13th, 2015.

During the evening of the attacks, they faced up to the terrorists for more than two hours in a confined corridor of the theater. Their survival forged a unique and unbreakable bond.

Those Who Lived chronicles their encounter and the years that followed, as they struggled to rebuild their lives, and continue living.

By Fanny Riedberger, award-winning creator of hit series One of us and Six women.

Who has never dreamed – or rather, had a nightmare – about taking their high school final exams again? A most traumatic, or at least life-altering, stage in our lives. The first REAL test of our adult future. For most people around us, it was simply part of the journey. And like any important exam, we'd rather it be something of the past. And yet, some of us never passed the exam. Such is the case of these 6 adults, volunteers, our everyday heroes, who have now decided, each for different reasons, to obtain the coveted Baccalaureate.

PERIOD DRAMA MINI SERIES
MISS AUSTEN

Based on the best-seller book by Gill Hornby one of the best novels of 2020 according to The Times and The Observer.

In 1890, a while after Jane has died, her sister Cassandra races to see her young friend Isabella who is about to lose her home following her father's death. Cassandra is ostensibly there to help her friend, but her real motive is to find a stash of private letters which, in the wrong hands, could destroy Jane's reputation. On discovering them, Cassandra is overwhelmed as she is transported back to her youth. In flashback, we meet Young Cassy and Jane as they navigate the infatuations, family feuds and dashed hopes which shaped their lives and laid the foundations for Jane's unforgettable stories. As Cassandra re-evaluates her past, she eventually realizes how blind she has been to the real cause of Isabella's heartache and distress. As she dedicates to guide Isabella towards true happiness, Cassandra is finally able to understand and celebrate the sacrifices she made for her sister, Jane.

ÇA, C'EST PARIS!

At the Tout-Paris, the cabaret reinvents itself every night!

Gaspard Berthille is manager of Le Tout-Paris, a renowned cabaret perpetuating the "wild Paris nights" myth, along with the Paradis Latin and various other fabled cabarets in the French capital. But unlike his father, Dary, the theater's former manager and legendary impresario, Gaspard has failed miserably at perpetuating the cabaret's success. Is that the fault of a tired old stage show? Less rigorous management? More innovative competition? Who knows? So Gaspard decides to sell the cherished family business to a big supermarket chain. But now he must break the news to his troupe...

BASED ON A TRUE STORY
SAMBER

The acclaimed new series by Oscar-winning director Jean-Xavier de Lestrade.

A story of decades of collective blindness.

Late 80's in Northern France, women are being sexually assaulted along the same road by the Samber river – with attacks taking place early mornings and in a similar style. The police fail to get to grips with the extent of these assaults or make a connection between the cases. The justice system is overwhelmed by the accumulating cases. It will take 30 years to catch a man, who never stopped attacking women and is responsible for at least 54 cases of rape or sexual assault. Samber is a thriller that recounts the progression of the investigation, and its repercussions from the 80's through to 2018 and the beginning of the #metoo era.

Breaking record figures in prime time on France 2 and on france.tv.

THE MORNING AFTER

Life's a beach!

When 25 year old Birmingham party-girl Nina Morgan wakes up naked on a beach in Cape Town, South Africa, about 6000 miles from home and with all of her stuff missing, it's clear things haven't gone to plan. A bunch of young and eccentric local misfits who share a cottage by the beach quickly rescue her from that immediate predicament, and help her exact revenge on the asshole who did this to her. But ultimately Nina's going to have to be the one to rescue herself from herself.

With a touch of humor and subtlety, The Morning After tackles the very topical subjects of alcohol consumption, personal relationships, and creating a life of your own.

ONE OF US S2

A coming of age dramedy about tolerance and inclusivity, inspired by a true story.

After narrowly avoiding closure just before the holidays, it's time for the students at Toulouse-Lautrec high school, including our main protagonist Victoire and her friends, to go back to class. This return is somewhat of a strange situation, as both teaching staff and students are still mourning the loss of Charlie, a fellow student at the school. But life must go on... Their days are filled with medical supervision, physical therapy sessions, pain management, learning about autonomy, deciding whether to undergo risky surgery, conflicts with parents, the arrival of a new student in a state-of-the-art wheelchair, and hidden or budding love stories and friendships. All of this is infused with the humor and courage that characterize this group of teenagers.

FANTASTIC YOUNG ADULT
WE ARE LEGEND

A coming-of-age series that combines drama, action, and humor, that also challenges the standards of young adult tales of superheroes.

Adolescence is a big mess. Mean schoolmates, unrequited loves, parents who don't understand you anymore, and every certainty you had up until then is swept away by the fear and the desire to grow up.

Sometimes you wished you had superpowers to survive your teenage years. Well, now you do. But things aren't much better, right? We Are Legend is the story of a group of kids with huge problems and immense powers. Powers that can be traced back to their own fears and deepest desires. Powers capable of turning their lives upside down, forcing them to face their limits, their wishes, their responsibilities. And then nothing will be like it was before.

CHARACTER-DRIVEN MURDER MYSTERY

THE CINDERELLA MURDER

The new opus of anthology series The Twelve,
Best Screenplay at Canneseries 2019.

The Cinderella Murder is a character-driven murder mystery which revolves around a jury of the people in a murder trial. Twelve citizens are called up for jury duty on a controversial murder case. They do not have an easy task ahead of them. They will decide on the guilt or innocence of Anton Bergman (48) and his daughter, Julie (20), who are accused of murdering Marianne Coens (45), Anton's partner and Julie's stepmother. Daughter Julie, however, claims she acted alone, and father Anton proclaims his innocence. But the prosecution believes Julie is just protecting her father and that the two of them committed the murder together. The lives of the jury members are also impacted with some twists and turns as this sensational murder case unfolds.

MOLIERE, CYRANO AND THE YOUNG KING

Wit, love and an undercover prince spark the beginning of French comedy.

During the Paris rebellion, young Louis XIV must be hidden from danger and is secretly replaced at court by a look-alike. Entrusted to the musketeer-poet Cyrano de Bergerac, Louis is sheltered within Madeleine Béjart's traveling theater troupe, where the actor and aspiring playwright Molière has just joined – unaware their newest member is the future king of France. As Cyrano struggles to handle the arrogant and clumsy young king, he begins writing a bold play for the troupe. Molière, bursting with ideas, transforms the work with wit and heart, awakening his genius for comedy and deepening his secret feelings for Madeleine, while young Louis discovers the joy of theater and the power of friendship. But back in Paris, intrigue is brewing – can the young king return in time before the masquerade is revealed and embrace his true royal destiny?

WHAT IS LOVE

Marry me once, divorce me twice.

Marguerite and Sofiane are a happily married couple trying to survive the chaos of parenting their teenage daughter Raphaëlle. But their daily routine is disrupted when Marguerite's ex-husband Fred shows up with an urgent, and utterly absurd request; they need to get divorced again... but this time it's to annul their Catholic marriage! Initially dismissive, Marguerite goes along with this yet doesn't take the process seriously. After all, what could possibly go wrong? But her flippant attitude inadvertently sets off a chain reaction of bureaucratic absurdities. Before they know it, Marguerite, Sofiane, their teenage daughter Raphaëlle, Cloe, Fred's new girlfriend, as well as Lea, Marguerite and Fred's adult daughter, all embark on a crazy and highly unorthodox trip to the Vatican.

AS GREEN AS IT GETS

After a barn accident, two men from opposite worlds forge an unlikely partnership that becomes their only way out.

Jean, an organic farmer in southern France, is drowning in debt and miserably alone since his girlfriend Sylvie left him. As he prepares to do the unthinkable in his barn, Foued, a young drug dealer from Marseille fleeing the police, crashes his car full of drugs straight into Jean's farm, accidentally saving Jean's life. Panicking when the police begin circling, Jean sets the car on fire, along with the entire cannabis cargo. Suddenly, the two men are stuck with a shared disaster: Jean might lose his farm, and Foued might lose his head. Their only plan? To secretly grow organic cannabis, hidden among the goats and the fields, with a few neighbors who are anything but discreet. What begins as a reluctant partnership slowly becomes mutual respect, as Jean and Foued learn to see beyond their differences. But will this unexpected bond be enough to face the dangers closing in on both of them?

LES MISÉRABLES: THE STORY OF JEAN VALJEAN

The origin story of one of literature's greatest heroes.

Jean Valjean is released from prison after nineteen years of hard labor, violence, and suffering. Filled with anger and a deep sense of injustice, he has become a dangerous man who trusts no one and nothing. When he arrives in a small village in Provence, he is repeatedly turned away. Desperate, he unknowingly finds refuge at the house of Bishop Bienvenu, who lives simply, with his sister and a single servant. There, he is surprised by their warm welcome, and his inner demons start to waver. But the temptation to be what society sees in him still haunts him, and he steals the Bishop's silverware. When the police ultimately catches him, the Bishop forgives him and gifts him the candlesticks. This act becomes the starting point of Jean Valjean's transformation into a new man who reclaims his humanity.

UNSUBMISSIVES

The true story of five young ordinary women, who, driven by desperation and societal neglect, accidentally become bank robbers.

Early 1990's, south of France. Katy, Hélène, Laurence and Carole have been best friends since childhood. Now in their twenties, they find themselves struggling with hardship and limited opportunities in their sunny small hometown. Despite their challenging circumstances, they have maintained a resilient and cheerful spirit, supporting each other throughout life's ups and downs.

But their lives take a dramatic turn when Hélène, a single mother of three, receives a sudden notification that her welfare checks have been reduced, threatening her ability to support her family.

Overwhelmed by this injustice and feeling powerless in the face of societal inequalities, the five women are driven by a fierce desire to change the course of their lives. They make the shocking decision to rob a bank, and soon, commit a series of increasingly daring heists.

THE FUTURE AWAITS

Based on the testimony of Tauba Birenbaum, collected in July 1997 as part of the Institute for Visual History of Steven Spielberg.

Paris, July 1942, based on a true story. As the rounding up of Jewish families multiply, 13-year-old Tauba, and her parents, Polish Jews, find refuge in a tiny room, under the roofs of Paris. Living conditions are tough, and each day merges into the next when you are locked up in only 6 square meters, and in constant fear of being discovered. But while her parents sink further into despair, Tauba's fighting spirit shines through! She finds joy in all manner of things, from a piano drawn on the floor, to marveling at the views of Paris through an open window. Despite the extreme circumstances of her daily life, she will keep hope until the liberation of Paris, and take back control of her life.

ABOUT

FEDERATION studios

Run by founder Pascal Breton and co-led by Lionel Uzan, Federation heralds a new breed of independent European studios, focusing on the creation, production, financing and distribution of high-quality original productions for the global marketplace.

Federation Studios works with the best worldwide talents and partners on the scene today to create a strong distribution portfolio as well as an array of premium international productions.

The production and distribution studio today has offices in Paris, Los Angeles, Rome, Madrid, London, Berlin, Cologne, Brussels and Tel Aviv.

Federation Studios is active in drama, kids & family, documentary and cinema. The group works with all platforms and major actors in the market and is behind several major international successes to date.

One of the biggest players in international distribution

The strong distribution arm of the company has been building up a rich lineup, mixing in-house and third-party premium content.

Federation International has established long-term distribution agreements with multi-award and prominent independent producers, such as What's Up Films, Unité, Einar Films Drama, Elephant, Orange Studio, Eyeworks (Warner Bros), Tetra Media, Slim Film + Television, Paypermoon Italia, Millstreet, Warner Belgium, Warner Sweden and many more... It has strong relationships both with historical and new local linear broadcasters and worldwide streamers.

Federation International co-finances projects in the early stages and accompanies partners in their specific production needs throughout the entire creative process.

The sales team at Federation is jointly led by Monica Levy and Guillaume Pommier, two leading figures in the field of international distribution.

What they say about our programs

SHERLOCK & DAUGHTER

David Thewlis slides so smoothly into the role of the prickly PI that it seems a shock he's never played him before

The Hollywood Reporter

David Thewlis, who has the ranginess and sharp profile one associates with the character, is a fine Holmes, caustic with a comic edge, and Hunt holds her own as his problematic partner.

The L.A. Times

MISS AUSTEN

Everything about Miss Austen is masterly.

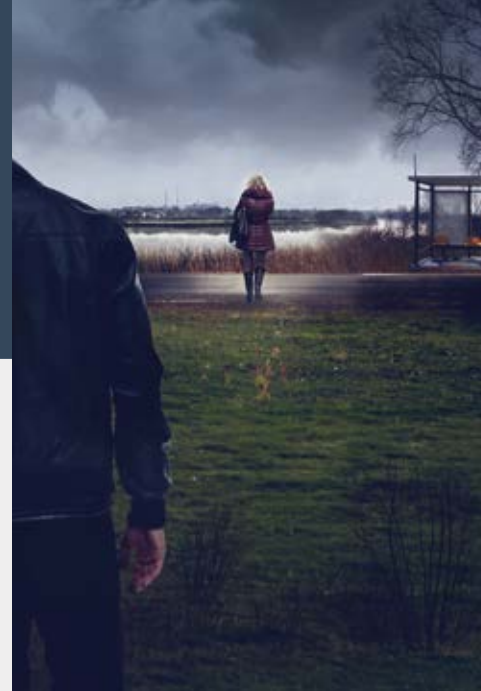

The Guardian

I challenge anyone not to be hooked by this beautifully emotional tale of sisterhood.

Stylist

Miss Austen encapsulates the wit, heart, and romance of a Jane Austen novel, promising to become an instant classic.

The Daily Mirror

SAMBER

Jean-Xavier de Lestrade, the Oscar-winning filmmaker behind docuseries The Staircase, has once again struck a chord with Samber.

Variety

A disturbing yet essential series that shines a spotlight on the very slow response by society and key institutions when it comes to sexual crimes.

Les Echos

I, JACK WRIGHT

Powerful and gripping.

Daily Mail

I, Jack Wright is a succession story with a difference.

Drama Quaterly

This drama is part family soap and part whodunnit.
